

Report on Regional Public Health Services and Health Promotion Services 2009

【Digest of Summary Report】

- The actual number of “pregnant or parturient women” who had basic health examination by municipality: the number of “pregnant women” was about 1,305,000, and the number of “parturient women” was about 67,000.
- The total number of clients at the public health centers or mental health and welfare centers of municipality: “in-person counseling” about 818,000, “day-care services” about 192,000, “home-visiting guidance” about 318,000 and “telephone counseling” about 1,142,000.
- The number of clients who had hepatitis virus examination by municipality: The number of clients who had “hepatitis B virus examination” was about 644,000, and those who had “hepatitis C virus examination” was about 640,000.

Please click here for the details (Japanese only)

Outline of Report on Regional Public Health Services and Health Promotion Services

1 Objective

Report on Regional Public Health Services and Health Promotion Services is to perceive the development, etc. of health care policy based on regional characteristics with a view to health management and improvement of local residents by public health center and municipality that implement the policy, thereby obtaining basic data for efficient and effective promotion of the regional health care policy by government and local public agencies.

2 Subjects

Public health centers and municipalities nationwide

3 Type of Report

Yearly report

4 Report Items

(1)Regional Public Health Services(the Regional Public Health Act, the Mother and Child Health Act and the Vaccination Act, etc)

Mother and Child Health, Health Promotion, Dental Health, Mental Health and Welfare, Health Education and Situation of Staffing, etc

(2)Health Promotion Services(the Health Promotion Act NO.17 section 1 and NO.19 section 2)

Delivery of health records, Health examination, Exercise therapy, Home-visit instruction, Examinees of Cancer, etc

5 Method and Route

6 Tabulation of Result

Statistics and Information Department, Minister's Secretariat, Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare tabulated the results.

7 Notes

(1) The responsible agencies for Report on Regional Public Health Services and Health Promotion Services (hereafter, the Reports) are “Public health centers” and “Municipalities” for Report on Regional Public Health Services and “Municipalities” for Report on Health Promotion Services.

(2) In the Reports, “Cities of cabinet order” means cities with public health centers, and “Special area” means Tokyo’s 23 wards.

(3) The population used to calculate the rates “per 100,000 population” in this outline is the “Population based on Residential Basic Book (as of 31 March 2010” by the Ministry of Internal Affairs and Communications.

(4) Symbols used in the tables

Quantity zero	—
Data not available or applicable	...
Item/Category not applicable	•
Decreased number	△

(5) Values presented in percentages are rounded and the sums of the items do not always make up the totals.

Reference:

- Japanese; 「地域保健・健康増進事業報告」
<http://www.mhlw.go.jp/toukei/list/32-19.html>
- "Health Statistics in Japan 2010", Public Health Services, page 50-57
<http://www.mhlw.go.jp/english/database/db-hss/hs2007.html>
- "Annual Health, Labour and Welfare Report 2008-2009" MHLW
<http://www.mhlw.go.jp/english/wp/wp-hw3/index.html>
- "Annual Health, Labour and Welfare Report 2008-2009" MHLW
<http://www.mhlw.go.jp/english/wp/wp-hw4/index.html>