

Table 8: Distribution of labour unions by initiatives for part-time workers

(Unit: %)

Category	Total of labour unions with part-time employees	"Yes", initiative for part-time employees is in place	Multiple responses									2005 "Yes", initiative for part-time workers is in place
			Establishment of consultation service or fact gathering via questionnaire	Holding an assembly or study session for part-time workers	Granting eligibility to join union	Solicitation for union membership	Demands for improvement of working conditions or treatment	Cooperation with labour unions on membership of individual part-time workers	Re-employment support after separation (including promotion to regular staff within company)	Labour management negotiation on employment of part-time workers	Other
Total	100.0	47.1	20.4	11.9	2.6	13.6	30.5	1.9	4.1	19.3	4.0	25.5
Eligible for union membership, and members exist	100.0	96.5	59.5	41.2	-	52.0	84.8	5.9	11.8	45.7	3.7	...
Eligible for union membership, but no members exist	100.0	41.3	3.2	1.4	-	10.5	33.6	1.1	1.7	9.4	1.8	...
No eligibility for union membership	100.0	30.1	8.3	2.6	3.8	0.3	11.0	0.5	1.6	10.9	4.3	...

Note: Figures take labour unions with part-time workers in the establishment as 100.