
Day 1 "Globalization and the World of Work"

We aim to share basic understandings on the necessity of the realization of decent work for all to achieve a fair and "people-centered" globalization by considering "globalization" from a viewpoint of people's work, and to promote discussion on the role of governments, corporations, labor unions, experts, and individual persons.