

Abbreviations

PR-MRL:	The second draft provisional MRLs (mg/kg).
Ref.:	the source of MRLs used in developing the Second draft provisional MRLs (e.g., MRL, WHL, Codex). In the heading of “Ref.,” “FC” stands for foreign countries and means that one or more of the current MRLs in the four countries and the EU were used. “PRO” stands for the currently settled provisional MRLs, and “ADD” stands for the current standards for use of Food Additives.
MRL:	the current maximum residue limit under the Food Sanitation Law.
WHL:	the withholding limit under the Agricultural Chemicals Control Law.
PAL:	the limit of quantification or determination (LOD) under the Pharmaceutical Affairs Law.
LSF:	the limit of quantification or determination (LOD) under the Law Concerning Safety Assurance and Quality Improvement of Feeds.
Codex:	the Codex standard established by the Codex Alimentarius Commission.
US:	the MRL in the United States of America.
AU:	the MRL in Australia.
CA:	the MRL in Canada.
EU:	the MRL in the European Union.
NZ:	the MRL in New Zealand
Type:	the type indicated on the Decision Tree in Figure 1
 :	LOD
N.D.:	Not detected