Manpower for Welfare Services

Overview

Obtaining Manpower for Welfare Services

Centers for the social service human resources Prefectural centers for social service resources Free help to find jobs ·Social welfare service organizations can apply This is a free-of-charge job People who would like to People who would like to work for welfare facilities, work in the field of welfare. here to recuit workers; for example, open Employment Recruitment positions created by opening a new facility, by referral program, looking for a full-time. registration application temporary or part-time workers leaving their positions or by increasein approved by the position, can apply here for personnel, replacement staff for maternity/child-Minister of Provision of Provision of employment. The bank rearing leave and openings in various types of Health, Labour and information information provides them with employment such as part-timers. The bank Welfare based on Assistance Assistance a information on various provides information on peoplelooking for the Article 33 of in personnel iob welfare job offers and helps employment and helps social service welfare the Employment recruiting them find employment. organizations find suitable workers. Security Law. Social Welfare Facilities, Councils of Social Welfare, etc Consultation on securing Welfare workplace explanation meeting manpower for welfare facilities Provision of People who have experince working for welfare facilities ·People who wish to get or are interested in a welfare job can hear information explanation directly directly from personnel engaged in a welfare job, about lt is important to endeavor not Assistance in working for welfare facilities and in-home welfare services. It is intended to personnel only to secure capable deepen their understanding of welfare jobs and motivate them to be recruiting manpower for welfare services actively involved in the field of welfare. but also to retain them and Partici ·Consultation are available for how to obtain qualifications required or useful improve their quality. pation for a welfare job. Consultation is offered to the management on how to Employment Promotion seminar for citizens including the secure various types of people having working experiences workers, how to improve working conditions and hours Information on the latest welfare trends and practical lectures/trainings are Advice to help employees maintain at offered to people who have worked as a matron, an instructor, etc. at welfare their positions and how to facilities and who would like to work again in the field. conduct overall administration People who are interested in welfare Training for social welfare Introductory class on welfare workers ·For people who "are interested in welfare" or "want to learn more about ·It is most important to welfare," the class offers lectures on themes closely related to citizens. Those substantiate the themes include wheelchair experience care giving practice, a facility tour and expertise/quality of workers basic lectures on welfare issues. The classes are given at the community level Partici to improve welfare services. in cooperation with municipal councils of social welfare on Sundays and Personnel training is evenings so that people can easily participate in them. systematically promoted in cooperation with training People who want to learn more about welfare facilities providers. Support self-education efforts of personnel. Assistance, Cooperation, and Information Provision Job centers for social services Established as branches for prefectural manpower centers for social services • In cooperation with manpower centers for services, more community-oriented PR activities and free job placement services are given. Cooperation Provision of information Schools associated with

"Hello work"

(Public employment

security office)

Nurse bank

welfare

 Junior colleges Training schools

Universities