Outline of Institutional Welfare Measures for People with Mental and Physical Disabilities

		Г		Welfare centers for people with physical disabilities (Type A)
				Facilities for health care and relaxation (i.e. improvement of health, cultural activities, sports, and recreation), as well as providing consultations for people with physical disabilities
		-		Welfare centers for people with physical disabilities (Type B)
			·	Daytime facilities for people with severe physical disabilities, providing creative activities, simple work and training in daily living
Γ		-		Rehabilitation centers for people with disabilities
	Community facilities			Accommodation and relaxation facilities for people with disabilities, their families, and volunteer staff
		-		Braille libraries
				People with visual disabilities can refer or borrow Braille publications and audio books of their own choice.
				Braille publishing facilities
				Publish Braille materials.
		-		Information service facilities for people with hearing disabilities
				Produce and lend video cassettes with subtitles (sign language), dispatch sign language interpreters, and lend out equipment.
		ŀ		Prosthetic appliances manufacturing facilities
				Manufacture and repair prosthetic appliances.
		ŀ		Homes for the blind
				Facilities to be used by people with visual disabilities having the license of massager, acupuncturist or moxa cautery practitioner for the convenience of their occupational lives. Facilities also provide guidance on skills.
		L		Guide dog training facilities
				Eacilities to provide guide dogs with training and users with training percessary for the use of guide dogs

Facilities to provide guide dogs with training and users with training necessary for the use of guide dogs