

Relief Measures for Japanese Remaining in China After the War

Overview

Outline of Relief Measures for Japanese Remaining in China After the War

Support Measures for Japanese Remaining in China After the War, etc.

Support at training centers	Placement center for Persons Returning from China <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ 6 months after returning ○ Residential facilities ○ Group guidance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Japanese lessons • Living guidance • Consultations on employment, etc. 	Training centers for People Returning from China to Establish Self-Sufficiency <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ 8 months after placement ○ Commuting facilities ○ Content of services <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Japanese language instruction • Living guidance • Consultations on employment, etc. 	Support and Communications Centers for People Returning from China <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Permanently-available for use ○ Commuting facilities ○ Content of services <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support for Japanese language acquisition toward employment • Living guidance and assistance with communication between returnees, etc. • Collection and provision of information on volunteer activities in regions, etc.
	Payment of full old-age basic pension, etc.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Late payment of public pension allowable for the period that returnees were unable to join the public pension due to being abroad as well as the period after returning • Full old-age basic pension shall be paid as public funds shall be used to cover the amount required for late payments
	Supplemental support payment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Full old-age basic pension shall be excluded from constructive receipts • 30% of other incomes, such as employees' pensions, etc. shall be excluded from constructive receipts • Financial support for housing, medical and nursing care, etc. shall be paid according to the situation of the individual household • Assignment of support and consultation staff with Chinese language abilities
Support in Communities	Establishment of environments for stable community lives by utilizing various regional <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Regional network services for assisting Japanese remaining in China after the war, etc. • Financial support for the necessary expenses of holding workshops to gain the understanding of residents in communities • Financial support for activities of persons working to coordinate community residents and Japanese remaining in China after the war, etc. (support leaders), etc. ○ Japanese language study support in neighborhoods <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Aid for Japanese language classes held by regional volunteers • Financial support for tuition at private Japanese language schools, etc. ○ Financial support for the expense of dispatching advisors on self-sufficiency, interpreters used in self-sufficiency support, etc. ○ Implementation of community life support programs for people returning from China

Detailed Data 1

Status of Permanent Return of Japanese Who Remained in China After the War

March 31, 2011

Households of returnees

Source: Social Welfare and War Victims' Relief Bureau, MHLW

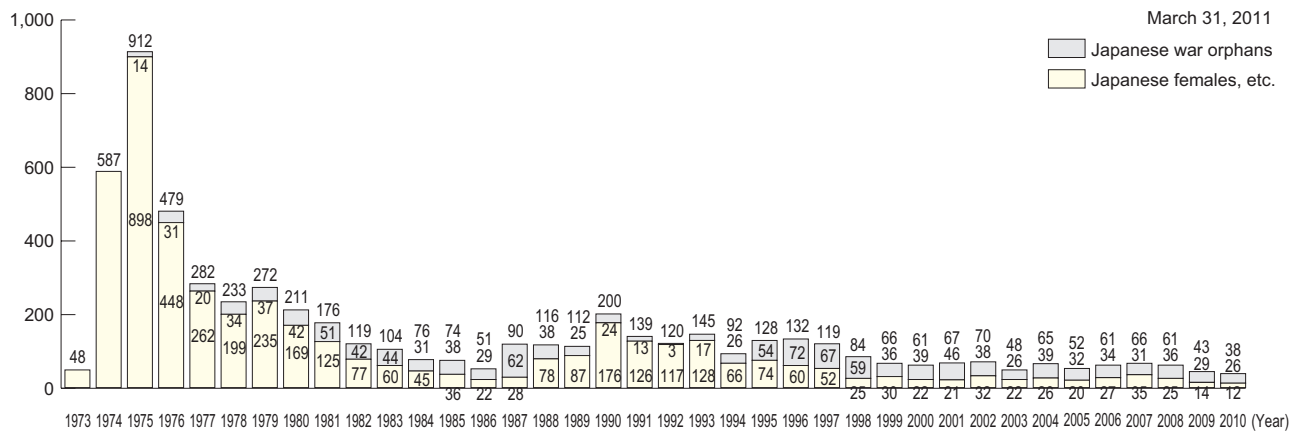

(Note) The figures for FY2007 and FY2008 exclude the number of households returning at their own expense identified in these fiscal years.

Detailed Data 2

Status of Temporary Return of Japanese Who Remained in China After the War

March 31, 2011

Households of returnees

Source: Social Welfare and War Victims' Relief Bureau, MHLW