Emergency Medical Service System

Overview Structural Chart of Emergency Medical Service Emergency and critical care (24 hours) · Comprehensive perinatal care centers for mothers and infants (61 centers) • Emergency medical service centers (186 centers) New emergency medical service centers (16 centers) Regional perinatal care centers for mothers and infants (207 centers) As of July 1, 2006 As of April 1, 2007 (Preterm infants, etc.) Emergency medical services requiring Pediatric emergency medical services hospitalization (holidays and nights) requiring hospitalization (holidays and nights) Pediatric emergency medical service support programs • Groups of hospitals on rotational duty (411 hospitals) (144 areas) • Joint-use hospitals (11 hospitals) Pediatric emergency medical service core hospitals (28 hospitals (60 areas)) As of March 31, 2006 As of September 1, 2006 Primary emergency medical care (holidays and nights) Rotational on-call system among practitioners (666 areas) Primary pediatric emergency centers Holiday and night emergency patient centers (508 centers) (Established by FY 2006 supplementary budget) As of March 31, 2006 Telephone consultation on pediatric emergency medical services (holidays and nights) Pediatric emergency telephone consultation programs (35 locations) As of March 1, 2007 Adult emergency patients Child emergency patients