Requirements for Establishing Social Welfare Corporations

The following requirements need to be met when establishing social welfare corporations.

(Extracts of the main parts of "Approval for Social Welfare Foundations (Director-General Notification)", etc. are provided below)

1. Organization

The board members of social welfare corporations must consist of no less than six directors and no less than two auditors.

The directors must include persons with knowledge and experience in social welfare services or involved in local welfare and the heads of the facilities managed by the corporation.

In addition, selecting officials of relevant administrative agencies or persons who cannot actually participate in the operation of the corporation is considered inappropriate. Selection of specially-related persons, such as relatives, etc., is also restricted.

A council must be established for each corporation except for those exclusively engaged in the following services.

- [1] Social welfare services of prefectures or municipalities that implement measures for persons requiring welfare services
- [2] Services of managing nursery centers (including attached regional centers for childcare support and temporary childcare (temporary day-care) services)
- [3] Services of long-term care insurance

2. Assets

Property such as land and buildings, which are needed in the provision of the social welfare services, should be allocated as basic property.

No less than 1/12 (no less than 2/12 is desirable for corporations partly engaged in services related to the Long-Term Care Insurance Act, etc.) of annual operating expenses shall be allocated as operating assets in the form of cash or deposits, etc.

3. Services

Social welfare corporations can engage in public benefit services and profit-making services in addition to the social welfare services listed on the previous page.

Public benefit services denote services intended to benefit the public but which do not fall into the category of being social welfare services (services with no relation to social welfare do not get approved). More concretely, in-home long-term care support services and the services of managing health care facilities for the elderly or fee-based homes for the elderly, etc. are included as being public benefit services.

Profit-making services refer to services whose profit is appropriated to run social welfare services or public benefit services implemented by the corporation, and can include the management of leasing buildings, parking lots, and running stores, etc. utilizing property owned by the corporation.

Both public benefit services and profit-making services must be subordinate businesses to the main business of social welfare services. In addition, the assets to be used in those purposes should be managed separately from basic and operating assets.

4. Disclosure

All the corporations must prepare statements on their operation, a general inventory, balance sheet, and revenue and expense statement by May every year and then submit a report on the current status, including the abovementioned statements, to the competent agencies by the end of June.

The corporation must retain these documents and auditors' opinions at its office and have them available for public inspection, except with due reason.

Actively use of external audits made by certified public accountants and licensed tax accountants is considered appropriate.

5. Counseling on establishment

In the course of establishing social welfare corporations the departments and bureaus of prefectures, designated cities, and core cities in charge of the pertinent social welfare corporation should be consulted.

6. Other

Qualification as head of a facility

The head of a social welfare facility must meet the qualifications provided for in the ordinances of the Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare and of the former Ministry of Health and Welfare and the "Head of Social Welfare Facilities Managed by Social Welfare Corporation (Director-General Notification)" in 1972.

The total number of activity subjects (households) was 1,966,725, mainly consisting of households of the elderly living alone, and thus covering 2.22% of the population. The total number of those engaged in activities (residents, volunteers, welfare supporters/welfare staff members, etc. excluding welfare volunteers/child welfare volunteers) was 407,736.

*4. Daily life and independence support services are implemented by councils of social welfare in prefectures and designated cities as primary implementers with a part of services being entrusted to councils of social welfare that are deemed to be capable of operating the services (core councils of social welfare). The figures indicate the percentage of municipal councils of social welfare that were entrusted with these services to the total. In actual fact, core councils of social welfare get assigned to the areas of multiple municipal councils of un-entrusted social welfare, and thus all areas are covered nationwide. In addition, the number of actual users is increasing every year, with 40,708 persons using the services as of the end of FY2012.

*5. The percentage of municipal councils of social welfare capable of being entrusted to the total. Based on the FY2012 MHLW social welfare promotion project "Investigations and Research on the Establishment of Comprehensive Rights Protection System in Communities".

Social Welfare Facilities

Overview Outline of Social Welfare Facilities

The purpose of social welfare facilities is to care and nurture those requiring various types of services to be able to lead a social life, including the elderly, children, persons with mental and physical disabilities, and the indigent, and to provide them with various treatment and training on rehabilitation in thus improving their welfare.

Social welfare facilities can be roughly divided into welfare facilities for the elderly, support facilities for persons with disabilities, public assistance facilities, women's protection facilities, and child welfare facilities, among others.

Number and capacity of social welfare facilities by classification

Classification	Number of facilities	User capacity
Total	(facility) 118,238	(person) 4,623,999

Public	19,253	999,832
Private	92,160	3,582,606

(Note) The totals of the number of facilities and user capacities are of facilities in operation among those recognized by prefectures, designated cities, and core cities.

The figures for implementing entities in "Survey of Institutions and Establishments for Long-term Care" are of facilities in operation among those that responded to the survey, and thus the figures do not match the totals of the number of facilities and user capacities.

Cost Bearing with the Development and Operation of Social Welfare Facilities

The cost of developing social welfare facilities is paid by the public through state and local subsidies, special local bonds, loans from the Welfare and Medical Service Agency, and a part of the profits from public racing events, as well as by private aid systems, and by loan systems for any portion borne by the facility, etc.

The following table shows, in principle, the cost sharing relationship associated with the state subsidy for the cost of any capital investment in buildings used as social welfare facilities.

Cost sharing	National government	Prefectures (including designated cities and core cities)	Municipalities	Social welfare corporations, etc.
Founder
Social welfare corporations, etc.	$\frac{50}{100}$	$\frac{25}{100}$	—	$\frac{25}{100}$

(Note) From FY 2005 the cost of developing facilities for the elderly or facilities related to children, which were both previously incorporated into a social welfare facility development expense subsidy, is now incorporated into a social welfare facility development expense/grant for community care and welfare space development subsidy, and a grant for developing facilities in promoting measures to support the development of the next generation, respectively.

With regard to strategic policies of development in FY2008 priority will be given to [1] those actively utilizing wood, including timber constructions, wooden interiors, and using timber products, etc., in thus contributing to the development of comfortable serene living environments for those admitted and the establishment of an environmentally-sound material cycle society, [2] those that promote asbestos removal, and [3] those that promote the quakeproofing of the facilities, etc.

The cost of operating social welfare facilities (placement expenses) is borne by those admitted to the facilities or allowed use of them or have commissioned a third party to do so, and as described in the following table.

Welfare Volunteers and Child Welfare Volunteers

Overview

Outline of Welfare Volunteers and Child Welfare Volunteers

The welfare volunteers prescribed for in the Commissioned Welfare Volunteers Act shall enhance social welfare through the spirit of providing social services, consultation from point of view of the people, any necessary assistance, and cooperate in the tasks of relevant the administrative agencies, including welfare offices, etc.

In addition, welfare volunteers also serve as child welfare volunteers, as provided for in the Child Welfare Act. Welfare volunteers appropriately identify the situation with the environment surrounding and the lives of children, pregnant women, and fatherless families in communities. If children requiring support are identified, welfare volunteers shall make the effort to solve their problems by providing consultations and advice on the available services and systems.

Increasing expectations with regard to the activities of child welfare volunteers led to a system of chief child welfare volunteers being created in 1994 in thus enabling them to exclusively engage in child welfare-related matters, and which was legally established within the Child Welfare Act in 2001. “Chief child welfare volunteers” are designated from among the child welfare volunteers. Chief child welfare volunteers provide liaisons and coordination between child welfare-related agencies and child welfare volunteers assigned to the region, along with assistance and cooperation in the activities of the child welfare volunteers.

Public Assistance System

Overview

Outline of Public Assistance System

[Public assistance system]

The public assistance system is used to guarantee a minimum standard of living as well as to promote self-support for any citizens that are impoverished by providing the necessary public assistance according to their level of poverty.

The system consists of 8 types of assistance, namely livelihood assistance, education assistance, housing assistance, medical assistance, long-term care assistance, maternity assistance, occupational assistance, and funeral assistance, which can all be provided alone or in combination according to the needs of the person requiring the public assistance.

Determining the Amount of Public Assistance

(Calculation of Minimum Living Expenses)

Livelihood assistance	+	Housing assistance	+	Education assistance	+	Long-term care assistance	+	Medical assistance	=	Minimum living Expenses
Living expenses		House rent, etc.		Compulsory education expenses		Long-term care expenses		Medical expenses

• In addition to the above items, a standard amount is added in the case of child birth, funeral, etc.

(Calculation of Income Appropriation Amount)

Average monthly income - (Actual necessary expenses + Basic deductions) = Income

(Calculation of Assistance Amount)

Minimum living expenses - Income appropriation amount = Assistance amount

[Standards of public assistance]

The standards of public assistance system involve standards for livelihood assistance, the scope of which includes clothing, food or anything else considered necessary in their daily life, and which get revised using the level equilibrium method that takes into consideration the growth of the consumption level of the general public, etc.

Detailed Data 2

Changes in Percentage Distribution of Households Receiving Public Assistance by Household Type

Examining the number of households receiving public assistance by household type reveals elderly households to have been of the highest percentage at 45.4%.

The decrease in percentage of elderly households in 2005 was due to a change in the definition of elderly households: the definition up to FY2004 was "households composed only of males aged 65 or older and/or females aged 60 or older but with or without any persons younger than 18" whereas the definition from FY2005 on was "households composed only of males and/or females aged 65 or older and with or without persons younger than 18".
