Community-based Support for the Elderly

Seong Jae-kyung
Senior Deputy Director
Ministry of Health and Welfare
Republic of Korea
1. Overview of the Project

Purpose

Mobilize community resources and combine them into tailored services for long-term care recipients and other elderly
- Remove blind spots of welfare services
1. Overview of the Project

Need

- Identify needs, mobility, economic means of consumers
- Develop care plans and link needed services
- Focus on needs and choice of consumers

Consumer-centered

Integrated delivery

- Conduct integrated case management
- Act as a one-stop contact place
- Resolve information divide
- Provide necessary services integratedly
1. Overview of the Project

Project description

Comprehensive counseling
- Provide counseling and conduct needs assessment on long-term care recipients identified through the National Health Insurance Service or those who make request for counseling

Resource management
- Create a network of public and private resources available in the community
  - Provide information on the resources and training of how to use them for LTC users and institutions

Partnership building
- Strengthen cooperation between related organizations
  - Coordinate or integrate resources and services
2. Project Implementation

Counseling and Resource linkage

-Case reception & identification, Initial interview
- Needs assessment
- Needs assessment, Resource linkage
- Develop service plans, User guide and consent
- Write counseling journal, Service linkage and monitoring
- Record re-assessment, Inform the end of services, Interview on case assessment
3. Resource Management & Partnership Building

- Medical care
  - Prevent before conditions get worse

- In-home care
  - Lower barrier for institutional care

- Health promotion
  - Year-round health management

- Rights protection
  - Prevent abuse
  - Advocate rights

- Housing safety
  - Prevent accidents

- NHIS
- Local government
- LTC institutions

- Multiple-sector Cooperation
- Networking

- Public resources
- Private resources

Integrated Support System
Thank you