

For those who are suffering from the effects of the Novel Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19)

Free
Consultations

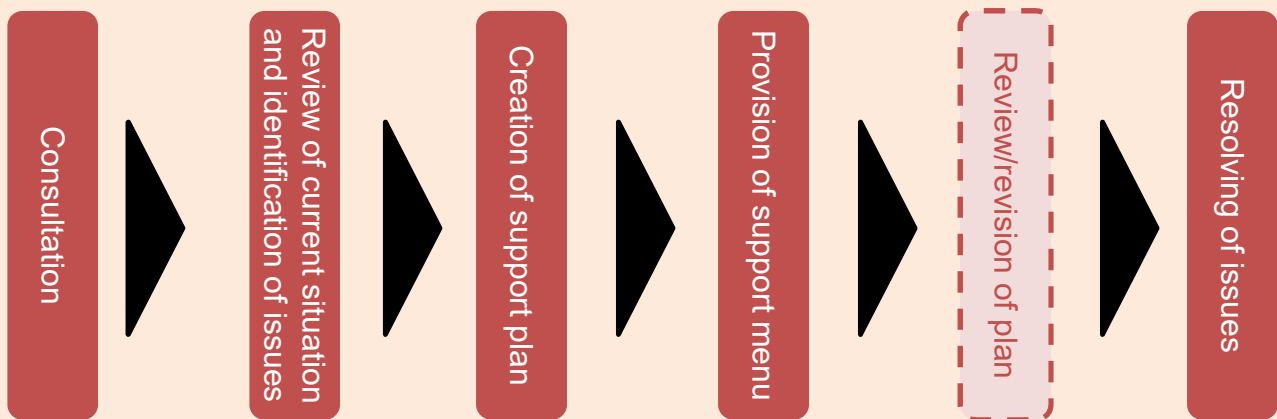

Notice on the provision of consultation services regarding money, employment, housing, and other matters related to daily living

Are you experiencing any difficulties in your life as a result of COVID-19, such as a reduced income and financial troubles?

<municipality> will be offering consultation services with specialized consultants who will listen to whatever problems you may be having in your daily life or work and provide practical advice to help solve these. Don't keep your worries to yourself; feel free to talk to us about even the smallest of your concerns.

Consultation Flow (Self-Reliance Support Service)

Sample Support Menu

Employment and Job Training Support

- Includes personal consultations and support for job hunting and employment
- Includes workshops and job experience support for those feeling anxious about working or having difficulty communicating

Support for Improving Household Finances

- "Visualizes" the current status of one's finances to understand their financial situation and assist with loans or other means of support
- Includes support for the payment of rents, taxes, utility bills, and other arrears, as well as support in applying for various benefit programs

Housing Security Benefit

- This program provides rent assistance for a fixed term to those who have lost or are at risk of losing housing due to financial difficulties resulting from leaving a job, etc., on the condition that they engage in job hunting activities, etc.

Temporary Living Support

- This program provides support for basic life necessities, such as food, clothing, and shelter for a fixed term for those who have lost their homes.