Healthy workplace Initiative

The Healthy Workplace Initiative is part of the Health is Life Campaign to promote a Healthy Pilipinas. The framework, similar to the Healthy Communities campaign, aims to improve the lives of the workers including the elderly and enable them to be healthy and productive even at a later age. It uses the health promotion strategies based on the seven priority areas: 1) diet and physical activity, 2) environmental health, 3) immunization, 4) substance use, 5) mental health, 6) sexual and 7) reproductive health and violence and injury prevention

A Joint Administrative Order has been finalized between the DOH DOLE and CSC to identify health promotion strategies/activities based on the seven priority areas in the workplace to improve the lives of the workers including older persons and increase their productivity.
