

VETERINARY CERTIFICATE

(For formalin-fixed or ethanol-fixed carcasses of Rodents and Lagomorpha)

Veterinary Certificate No.:

I: IDENTIFICATION OF ANIMAL(S)

Species/Breed	Number	Sex	Age	Distinctive Marks

----- LAST ITEM -----

II: ORIGIN OF ANIMAL(S)

Name and address of consignor: _____

III: DESTINATION OF ANIMAL(S)

Name and address of consignee: _____

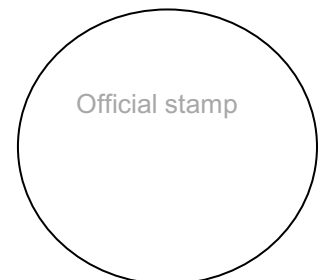

Country of destination: Japan

Flight number: _____

Place of loading: Singapore

Date of loading: _____

Official stamp

IV: SANITARY INFORMATION (delete as necessary)

1. Permeated to center of carcass by either a formaldehyde solution (limited to those with a concentration of 3.5% by weight or more) or an ethanol solution (limited to those with concentration of 70% by weight or more) at the time of shipment.
2. Kept in airtight containers (with no risk of the infiltration of gases or microorganisms under ordinary handling or storage conditions) filled with the solution at the time of shipment.

I, the undersigned, certify that the animal described above meet the requirements.

(Signature of Official Veterinarian)

Name:

Designation:

Address:

Date issued:

