Immediate Measures on Food Utensils, Containers and Packaging

Deliberate on the formulation of guidelines concerning production management

Guidelines concerning production management (Notification)

Updating of the list of chemical substances (at any time)

Accumulate scientific findings and scrutinize the contents of the list

Thoroughly implement production management by business operators

Deliberate desirable regulatory system, including legislation of PL, based on the list development status and the implementation status of production management by business operators

(Formulation of production management guidelines, etc.)

- ◆ Deliberate on the formulation of guidelines concerning production management related to production management methods and information transmission, and make public.
- As information useful for production management, compile a list of chemical substances subject to the voluntary standards of the industry and attach it to the production management guidelines as a reference.

(Addition and gathering of raw material information)

◆ Collect and summarize domestic and overseas information on the chemical substances to be subject to risk management, facts on the use of them in raw materials of UCP.

(Survey of actual status of production management, etc.)

 Collect and summarize the information on relevant business operators, and the activities implemented by the business operators.

(Revision of current specifications and standards, etc.)

 Consider to revise the current specifications and standards and newly establish specifications and standards for synthetic resins in response to technological advancement.