

Japan illustrated by the number of people per 100 Japanese

Each number shows the latest one.
(2003 ~ 2009)

- Children admitted to daycare centers 1.6 peoples
- People with disabilities 5.8 peoples
- Those receiving public assistance 1.2 peoples
- Those receiving long-term nursing care service 3.0 peoples
- Primary insured of the National Pension (self-employed persons, students, etc.) 15.7 peoples
- Secondary insured of the National Pension (salaried workers, civil servants) 29.9 peoples
- Tertiary insured of the National Pension (spouses of the secondary insured) 8.2 peoples
- Old Age Pensioners 21.1 peoples

- Working people 49.3 peoples
 - Employees 42.8
 - Self-employed persons 4.7
- Employees
 - Male 24.7 peoples
 - Female 18.1 peoples
- part-time workers 6.4 peoples
- Dispatched workers 2.7 peoples
- Contract/contracted workers 0.8 peoples
- Freeters 1.4 peoples
- Workers with shorter work hours (less than 35 hours/week) 11.3 peoples
- Unemployed people 2.6 peoples
- Insured persons under the employment insurance beneficiaries 29.2 peoples
- Workers with longer work hours (over 60 hours/week) 0.5 peoples
- Workers with findings in the regular medical examination at company 4.8 peoples
- 22.4 peoples

- Those who feel "bad" or "not very good" about health 13.0 peoples (over 6 years old)
- Those with problems/stress concerning daily life 48.2 peoples (over 12 years old)
- Those who have ever taken medical examination or complete medical checkup 61.5 peoples (over 20 years old)
 - Those who received treatment at dical institutions over the past month 33.4 peoples
 - Lifestyle-related disease patients 11.5 peoples
- Smokers
 - Male 14.5 peoples
 - Female 3.9 peoples
- Those who suffer from cancer in lifetime
 - Male 26.6 peoples
 - Female 20.8 peoples
- Bone-marrow donor registrants 0.279 peoples
- Those with suspected or have a high risk of contracting metabolic syndrome
 - Male (aged 40 ~74) 11.4 peoples
 - Female (aged 40 ~74) 4.6 peoples
- Those who exercise on a regular basis
 - Male (over 20 years old) 13.1 peoples
 - Female (over 20 years old) 11.6 peoples
- Insured people under the National Health Insurance/ Health Insurance administered by the Japan Health Insurance Association (Kyokai Kenpo) 52.6 peoples
- Insured people under the National Health Insurance 39.7 peoples

Cancers	1.2 peoples
Diabetes	1.9 peoples
Hypertensive diseases	6.2 peoples
Heart diseases	1.2 peoples
Cerebrovascular disease	1.0 peoples

- Male 48.7 peoples
- Female 51.3 peoples
- Under 15 years old 13.3 peoples
- Over 65 years old 22.7 peoples
 - Over 75 years old 10.8 peoples among them
- Elementary school students 5.5 peoples
- Junior high school students 2.8 peoples
- High school students 2.6 peoples
- College/Graduate students 2.2 peoples

