

⑨ Health Care and Welfare Measures for People with Physical Disabilities

Structure of Payment for Services and Supports for Persons with Disabilities Pertaining to Welfare Service for Persons with Disabilities (enforcement as from October 2006)

Services	Number of place of businesses	Number of user	Content of services	Long-Term Care Benefits
Home help service	14,116 (locations)	105,787 (peoples)	Provide in-home care for bathing, elimination, meals, etc.
Visiting care for persons with severe disabilities	4,520 (locations)	7,574 (peoples)	Provide comprehensive support to persons with severe physical disabilities, who need nursing care continuously with care in their residences, to support meals, bath, elimination and nursing care during transportation when they go out
Activity support	929 (locations)	4,830 (peoples)	Provide persons with insufficient judgment with necessary support for avoiding danger which could occur when such persons conduct by themselves and care during transportation when they go out
Comprehensive support for persons with severe disabilities	7 (locations)	22 (peoples)	Provide persons whose degrees of necessity for nursing care are very high with comprehensive welfare services such as home help service and other various services
Day service for children	1,559 (locations)	50,059 (peoples)	Provide children with disabilities with instruction about basic actions in daily life, adaptive trainings to group living, etc.
Short-stay service	3,083 (locations)	26,495 (peoples)	Provide persons who need nursing care with short-time placement in support facilities including nighttime, due to sickness of their in-home caretakers or other reasons, to offer care for bath, elimination, meals, etc.
Medical care	36 (locations)	2,090 (peoples)	Provide persons with disabilities who need medical and continuous nursing care with functional training, care management, nursing care, daily care, etc. in medical institutions
Care for daily life	3,998 (locations)	111,207 (peoples)	Provide persons with disabilities who need nursing care continuously with care for bath, elimination, meals as well as opportunities for creative or productive activities mainly in the daytime
Nighttime support, etc in support facilities for persons with disabilities (support for residential care)	937 (locations)	51,940 (peoples)	Provide persons with disabilities living in support facilities with care for bath, elimination, meals, etc. during nighttime and holidays
Group home with care (care home)	3,202 (locations)	35,492 (peoples)	Provide persons leading a communal life with care for bath, elimination, meals, etc. in their residence during nighttime and holidays
Rehabilitation service (trainings for improving physical function and social abilities)	1,039 (locations)	11,499 (peoples)	Provide persons with disabilities with trainings for improving physical function or social abilities for a certain period so that they can live independent daily and social life
Transition support for employment	1,659 (locations)	19,457 (peoples)	Provide persons with disabilities who desire to work in a private company, etc. with necessary trainings for improving knowledge and skills needed to enter the work-force for a certain period
Transition support for employment (type A / type B)	4,245 (locations)	86,127 (peoples)	Provide persons with disabilities who have difficulties to work in a private company, etc. with opportunities for employment as well as necessary trainings for improving knowledge and skills needed to enter the work-force
Group home with aid (group home)	2,968 (locations)	20,491 (peoples)	Provide persons leading communal lives in with consultation and other aid in their daily lives in their residence during nighttime and holidays

※ The Number of businesses and users are gained by extraction and counting on the basis of the actual payment data obtained by the Federation of National Health Insurance Associations

※ Concerning the existing rehabilitation facilities for people with physical disabilities, care facilities for people with mental retardation, social rehabilitation facilities for people with mental disorders, etc., they shall shift to new system services in the period of transition measures by March 2012.

Combination of Daytime Activity and Living Place

Option of service combination is available by separating services of living facilities into daytime service (daytime activity program) and nighttime service (habitation support program). In using the program, personalized support plan shall be made to provide services that meet respective purpose of use.

• After revision

Place of daytime activity	Select one or more programs below
Medical care (medical type) ※
Care for daily life (welfare type)
Rehabilitation service (trainings for improving physical function and social abilities)
Transition support for employment
Transition support for employment (type A / type B)
Local activity support center (community life support service)

Place of living

Support for residential care at support facilities for persons with disabilities or
Habitation support program (functioning of care home, group home and welfare home)

※ Medical care shall be implemented combined with admission to medical institutions.