

Overview

Support for the working carrier formation

○It is important for each one to acquire attending a lecture and the business experience etc. of the education and training in conformity with an own occupation life design to achieve development of the occupation career of the working person that continues and is smooth in the diversification of the structural shift of industry and the occupation, the sweep of technological changes, and the way of workings etc. , and to maintain the environment that can effectively demonstrate the vocational capability.

○For these reasons, based on the eighth occupation of human resource development plan promotes the labor markets of infrastructure construction with the human resources development side.

Various vocational training ・ opportunity of education training

- A private enterprise, a corporation group, a general corporation / foundation, a university / a special vocational school/ NPO corporation uses various education training service
- The review of a training course based on human resource needs of the company, uses sponsored training for upgrade of public human resource development
- Promoting the human resource training by based on the Job-Card system, and corporation training and classroom learning

Enhancement of infrastructure that lies occupation ability evaluation

- Promotion or maintenance of the human resource evaluation standards system based on a company/an industrial organization needs
- Further spread promotion by expansion at examination chance that uses review of authorization occupational category and use of civilian agency of trade skill test system

Maintenance of the carrier consulting environment

- Promotion of the training for the carrier consultant in the private organization
- Supporting of the security / improvement of the carrier consultant in the private engine
- Improvement of carrier consulting technique for youths
- Maintenance and cooperation with field of mental health specialists

Enhancement of information infrastructure concerning occupation career formation

- Offer the information not only workers and jobseeker but also the person who stopped an occupation carrier by delivery / child care / care etc
- Promotion for exchange of information of education/the human resource development