

○ Showa-kan

The Showa-kan was opened in the spring of 1999, for the purpose of passing down to posterity about hardships experienced by bereaved families of the war dead and the other people during and after the war.

The Showa-kan exhibits real materials showing the people's lives of that time as they were, provides an access to books and videos and develops the programs that provide a broad range of information on the affiliated facilities. Besides, the thematic exhibitions are held 3 times a year along different themes and provide an opportunity for commemorating those hardships.
