Basic measures

Measures to ensure safety

Preventive measures against occupational diseases

Formulation of industrial accident prevention plan

Preventing industrial accident based on the Eleventh industrial Accident Prevention Plan (2008-2012)

Establishment of safety and health management system

Promoting safety and health management activities at workplaces.

Provision of safety and health education

Promotion safety and health education at workplaces

Development of safety and health awareness

Industrial Safety Week nationwide and industrial Health Week nationwide, and establishing an award system for no industrial accident record

Promotion on Investigation of Danger or Harm, etcsafety and health

Implementation of publication, dissemination and instruction concerning "Guidelineson Voluntary activities on". Promotion of utilization of the safety data sheets (MSDA) for chemical substances. Promotion of utilization of the occupational safety and health management system(OSH-MS)

Safety promotion of machinery

Measures to prevent industrial accident caused by machines (standards, inspection) Dissemination and fixing of the "Guidelines on Comprehensive Safety Standards of Machinery'

Promotion of construction safety measures

Supporting small and medium general contractors to be able to increase the ability to supervise subcontractors / Dissemination of guidelines on construction site safety management by principal employers / Promoting safety management activities of specialist contractors / Promoting measures against falling accidents

Measures for industries with frequent occurrence of accidents

Promoting measures for manufacturing, construction, transportation, forestry, and the tertiary industry

Promotion of measures for chemical substances management

Implementing preventative measures against exposure based on Ordinance on Prevention of Hazards due to Specified Chemical Substances, ordinance on Prevention of Organic Solvent Poisoning, etc. / Promoting support employers for chemical substance management / Promoting labeling of chemical substances with their hazard and toxicity and the issue of MSDS

Promotion of asbestos hazard prevention measures

Intensified measures for total prohibition of asbestos containing products

Taking measures against asbestos exposure under the Ordinance on Prevention of Asbestos Hazards

Promotion of dust hazard prevention measures

Intensified measures for three categories of management - working environment management, working management and health management
Promotion of preventive measures against pneumoconiosis, lumbago, ionizing radiation hazards, heat stroke, anoxia, etc.

Promotion of mental health and overwork measures

Ensuring that every effort is being made in line with the "Guidelines for Maintaining and Improving Worker's

Ensuring that face-to-face guidance for employees under a long-time labor by a doctor is carried out.

Promotion of industrial health activities

Ensuring that measures are taken based on the results of medical checkups, etc. Health consultation at the Occupational Health Promotion Centers targeting at small-scale businesses Supporting measures for health maintenance and improvement to advance health promotion in the

Comfortable workplace

Measures to ensure health

Improving the work environment by promoting measures against smoking in the working places Certifying promotion plans to improve the work environment by Director General of prefectural Labour Bureau.

Promotion of safety and health measures to cope with internationalization

Promoting measures on the basis of the international trend. Promoting approaches under the international cooperation and partnership .

Cooperation with industrial accident prevention organizations, etc Japan Industrial Safety and Health Association, Industrial Safety and Health Associations of each industry, etc.