

Detailed Date 1 The current situation of the labour union

Source: "Basic Survey on Labour Union" compiled by the Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare Secretariat Statistics and Information Department, "Labour Force Survey" compiled by the Statistics Bureau of the Ministry of Internal Affairs and Communications

Detailed Date 2 Change in the number of dispute

Source: Survey on Labour Dispute compiled by the Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare Secretariat Statistics and Information Department

- (Note)
1. "Total dispute" refers to the total of the number of dispute attendant on dispute acts and the number of dispute attendant on no dispute acts, however, participated by third parties such as Labour Relations Commission.
 2. "Total number of participants in dispute" refers to the number of the maximum member in unions and strike teams during the labour dispute regardless of whether or not they participated in them.
 3. "Dispute acts" are the acts that parties relating labour carry out to achieve their insistence, the acts to oppose them, and it refers to the acts to retard normal administration of businesses (such as the strikes for half a day or more, closure of facilities, the strikes for half a day and less, slowdowns and business managements, etc).
 4. "Number of participants in dispute acts" refers to the real number of those who actually conducted dispute acts.