

Overview

A Local Youth Support Station Business

《Points and Purposes》

It is necessary that the put situation of everybody do an individual, continuous, inclusive support responding to support the independence of the young person such as NEET.
Therefore, a network of local youth support organizations was established in cooperation with local governments, and the “Youth Support Station” has been operated as its center.

- “A Local Youth Support Station” established to support the independence of the NEET by collaboration with the local government (Commonly known as Saposute).
(50 places of FY2008→ 77 places of FY 2009→ 92 places of FY 2010→ 100 places of FY 2010)
- The professional consultation for youth people situation, it is carried out an appropriate instruction to each support organization as the core of the network in the local area
※The number of the people for visit to an office: 144,171 people (2007, 202,112 people (FY 2008), 273,858 people (FY 2009)
※The ratio of employment people who used employment course after six months: 26.8% (FY 2007), 27.8% (FY 2008), 32.8% (FY 2009 register of April ~ September)

《A 2010 business plan (A summary)》

① Consultation and Support Program (expanded)

Total support from the initial consultation to self-sufficiency support are offered to those who are covered by the support program, and it helps them to utilize the network of youth support organizations in the region and to receive necessary support continuously by referring them to specialized organizations and following up the support situation. A career consultant in charge of home-visit support is appointed to start a new home-visit support program for high-school dropouts who have not decided their career (50 places)..

② Continuous support program (newly introduced)

As part of the Self-Sufficiency Support Program by the Youth Support Station, comprehensive and continuous support including educational support for re-learning (such as taking a course of part-time evening course or correspondence high school and taking a high school equivalency examination) and career consultation are carried out for those who aim at obtaining a high school diploma or education level equivalent to a high school diploma as their immediate objective(5 places).

③ Program of short-term camp for training (newly introduced)

As part of the Self-Sufficiency Youth Support Program by the Support Station, short-term training camp is carried out to provide those who need to build the foundation of life with a life training program(5 places).

